In the case of capital increases, shareholders are generally entitled to subscription rights. The shares may also be underwritten by one or more banks with the obligation to offer them to the shareholders for subscription. With the consent of the Supervisory Board, the Management Board is authorized however to exclude shareholders' subscription rights

- aa) in the case of a capital increase against cash contributions, to the extent necessary to avoid fractional amounts; or

The total number of shares issued on the basis of the above authorizations with the exclusion of shareholder subscription rights for capital increases against cash and/or non-cash contributions and including the deductions listed below, may not exceed 10 % of the share capital calculated either at the time these authorizations take effect or at the time they are exercised, based on whichever amount is lower. The aforementioned 10 % limit shall include (i) treasury shares sold with the exclusion of subscription rights after these authorizations become effective, (ii) shares issued on the basis of other authorized capital with the exclusion of subscription rights during the period in which these authorizations are in effect, and (iii) shares to be issued to service convertible bonds and/or bonds with warrants, insofar as the convertible bonds and/or bonds with warrants have been issued with the exclusion of shareholders' subscription rights while these authorizations are in effect but in respect of items (i), (ii) and/or (iii) in each case only insofar as the shares are not used to service claims by members of the Management Board and/or employees of the Company and/or its affiliated companies under employee participation programs. The maximum limit reduced in accordance with the above sentences of this paragraph shall be increased again when a new authorization to exclude shareholders' subscription rights resolved by the Annual General Meeting takes effect after the reduction, in the amount of the new authorization, up to a maximum of 10 % of the share capital in accordance with the requirements of sentence 1 of this paragraph.

Shareholders are generally entitled to a subscription right. The shares may also be underwritten by one or more banks with the obligation to offer them to the shareholders for subscription. With the Supervisory Board's consent, the Management Board is, however, authorized to exclude the subscription rights of shareholders in the following cases:

- aa) to the extent necessary to avoid fractional amounts; or

In addition, shares issued excluding shareholders' subscription rights during the term of this authorization on the basis of other capital measures in direct or mutatis mutandis application of Section 186 para. 3 sentence 4 AktG shall be included in this 10 % limit of the share capital. The maximum limit reduced in accordance with the above sentences of this paragraph shall be increased again when a new authorization to exclude shareholders' subscription rights resolved by the Annual General Meeting takes effect in accordance with section 186 para. 3 sentence 4 AktG after the reduction, in the amount of the new authorization, up to a maximum of 10 % of the share capital in accordance with the requirements of sentence 1 of this paragraph bb).

The maximum limit reduced in accordance with the above sentences of this paragraph shall be increased again when a new authorization to exclude shareholders' subscription rights resolved by the Annual General Meeting takes effect after the reduction, in the amount of the new authorization, up to a maximum of 10 % of the share capital in accordance with the requirements of sentence 1 of this paragraph.
